4 COVERAGE

This Agreement covers the Alliance and the Company in respect of all of its employees covered by the classifications set out in Parts 6 to 11 below. Exceptions apply in relation to the temporary employment of performers for non repertory Music Theatre productions under a Performers Collective Agreement , as and when agreed with the Alliance.

5 DURATION AND APPLICATION

5.1 This Agreement commences from the beginning of the first full pay period to start on the date on which it is certified and will remain in force until 31 December, 2014. Thereafter it will continue to apply until replaced by a new agreement or until one or other party terminates it by giving three months' notice.

5.2 This Agreement replaces all previous agreements, certified or otherwise, between the Parties in relation to the employees it covers.

5.3 The relevant award for the purpose of this Agreement is the Live Performance Award 2010 and this Agreement replaces the provisions of that Award in its entirety unless specified to the contrary.

6 COMMITMENTS

6.1 No Extra Claims

There will be no further increases sought or granted during the duration of this Agreement except where provided for within the Agreement.

6.2 Underlying Principles

The Parties are committed to working together throughout the life of this Agreement to:

- a) maintain a constructive and harmonious employment environment;
- b) recognise the professionalism, competence and skill of artists and staff, and their contribution to the Company's activities;
- c) achieve greater flexibility and efficiency in working arrangements that help to ease the cost impact of the salary increases on the Company's activities, while protecting income and facilitating production and performance requirements, within the framework of a safe working environment;
- d) help prevent and eliminate discrimination, harassment and bullying from the workplace, and in particular ensure that neither the Agreement provisions nor their operation are directly or indirectly discriminatory in their effects;
- e) provide a satisfying working environment and good morale within the Company.

6.3 Salary Increases

The salary increases provided in this Agreement shall be 3.7% for 2012 and 3.0% for 2013 and 3.0% for 2014.

In the event that CPI movements exceed 3% for the years 2013 and/or 2014, and the combined increase exceeds 6%, then the Company will increase salaries to match the combined CPI increase. This is to ensure that in the aggregate, salary increases will at a minimum match CPI increases. The relevant index is the Sydney capital city CPI index for the four (4) quarters to the end of September in the preceding year.

6.4 Implementation of changes

Employees will receive the base salary increases in clause 6.3 from the first full pay period in January of that year. Any further salary adjustments will come into effect on the date this Agreement is registered at Fair Work Australia and will be paid retrospective to the first pay period in January.

Work related allowances will increase in line with base salary increases in clause 6.3 from the first full pay period in January of each year of the Agreement. Changes to industry allowances will come into effect from 1 July each year, or as otherwise determined in the adjustment of industry allowances, or as agreed by the parties and specified in this Agreement.

6.5 Size of ensemble

The Company confirms its intention to maintain:

- at least the current number of Ensemble Principals on ongoing/52 week (or longer) contracts, and
- a Chorus of 48 full-time members (and no less than 40),

Where the financial position of the company necessitates less than 48 full time chorus members, the company confirms its intention to bring the number back up to 48 as soon as it is financially responsible to do so.

The Company will consult with the Principals, Chorus and the Alliance prior to any change in this policy.

6.6 Work experience

Work experience students will not be used to replace paid employment

6.7 No reduction of salary

An employee who on the date of coming into force of this Agreement is receiving a higher rate of pay than is set out in the rates for their classification in parts 6 -11 will not have their rate of pay reduced as a consequence of the coming into operation of this Agreement.

6.8 Variation of the Agreement

In accordance with the Fair Work Act, 2009, the terms and conditions of this Agreement can be varied during its life where the Company, the Alliance and the majority of employees affected consent to the variation sought. Provided that such variation would not result in a reduction in overall terms and conditions of employment of such employees, it will become a schedule to the Agreement and will take precedence over any provision of this Agreement, to the extent of any expressly identified inconsistency within the Agreement. Alternatively, an application to vary this Agreement may be made to Fair Work Australia. The variation will be made available to all employees, the Company and the Alliance.

6.9 Individual flexibility agreements

The Company and an employee covered by this enterprise agreement may agree to make an individual flexibility arrangement to vary the effect of terms of the agreement provided the individual agreement deals with arrangements about when work is performed, and the arrangement meets the genuine needs of the Company and employee, and the arrangement is genuinely agreed to by the Company and employee.

The Company will ensure that the terms of any individual flexibility arrangement:

- a) are about variations to the taking of public holidays
- b) result in the employee being better off overall than the employee would be if no arrangement was made.

The Company will ensure that the individual flexibility arrangement:

- a) is in writing; and
- b) includes the name of the employer and employee; and
- c) is signed by the employer and employee and if the employee is under 18 years of age, signed by a parent or guardian of the employee; and
- d) includes details of:
 - (i) the terms of the enterprise agreement that will be varied by the arrangement; and
 - (ii) how the arrangement will vary the effect of the terms; and
 - (iii) how the employee will be better off overall in relation to the terms and conditions of his or her employment as a result of the arrangement; and
- e) states the day on which the arrangement commences.

The Company will give the employee a copy of the individual flexibility arrangement within 14 days after it is agreed to.

The Company or employee may terminate the individual flexibility arrangement:

- a) by giving no more than 28 days written notice to the other party to the arrangement; or
- b) if the Company and employee agree in writing — at any time.

6.10 Renegotiation of Agreement

The parties agree to begin, by 1 July, 2014, negotiations for a new agreement to replace this one.

7 CONSULTATION

- 7.1 The Company, employees and the Alliance agree to maintain consultative mechanisms and procedures at the workplace in order to facilitate the efficient operation of the workplace. The particular consultative mechanisms and procedures will be appropriate to the size, structure and needs of the Company.
- 7.2 In particular, the Company will consult with its employees and the Alliance about significant workplace changes, including changes to season structures and changes to venues.

8 DISPUTE RESOLUTION

- 8.1 In the event of a dispute in relation to a matter arising under this Agreement, or any other relevant matter, in the first instance the parties will attempt to resolve the matter at the workplace by discussions between the employee/s concerned and the relevant supervisor and, if such discussions do not resolve the dispute, by discussions between the employee/s concerned and more senior levels of management as appropriate.
- 8.2 A party to the dispute may appoint another person, organisation or association to accompany or represent them in relation to the dispute.
- 8.3 If a party feels that the dispute in relation to a matter arising under the agreement is unable to be resolved at the workplace, and all agreed steps for resolving it have been taken, the dispute may be referred to FWA for resolution by mediation and/or conciliation and, where the matter in dispute remains unresolved, arbitration. If arbitration is necessary the parties confer to FWA the right to exercise any and all of its powers to allow arbitration to take place and allow FWA to make orders to resolve the dispute.
- 8.4 It is a term of this Agreement that while the dispute resolution procedure is being conducted work shall continue normally unless an Employee has a reasonable concern about an imminent risk to his or her health or safety.
- 8.5 Any dispute referred to FWA under this clause should be dealt with by a member agreed by the parties at the time or, in default of agreement, a member nominated by either the head of the relevant panel or the President.
- 8.6 The decision of FWA will bind the Employer and Employee/s, subject to either party exercising any available right of appeal against the decision.
- 8.7 For the avoidance of doubt, this clause bestows upon FWA the right to deal with disputes in relation to flexible working arrangements on reasonable business grounds, extension to unpaid parental leave, and any other matter dealt with by the National Employment Standards, in which case the dispute is subject to clauses 8.1 to 8.6 above.

Part 2: Employment Relationship

9 TYPES OF EMPLOYMENT

- 9.1 An employee will be engaged on one or another of the following bases, which will be confirmed in writing:
 - a) on an ongoing basis (permanent); or
 - b) for a particular period, or project, or for the run of a production (seasonal); or
 - c) by the hour or the call (casual).

9.2 Full-time and part-time employment

A permanent or seasonal employee may be employed either full-time or part-time. A part-time employee is entitled to the salary and conditions applying to a full-time employee, on a pro rata basis according to their agreed ordinary hours or work. Arrangements for job share are at Appendix A.

9.3 Requirement to work flexibly

The Company may direct any employee to carry out such duties as are within the limits of their skill, competence and training.

9.4 Seasonal employment

A seasonal contract may be renewed as often and for such periods as are agreed between Opera Australia and the individual employee. Where a new seasonal contract is taken up immediately upon the expiry of a previous contract, the total period of employment will be treated as continuous for entitlement purposes. Except where seasonal contracts are consecutive in this way, each period of seasonal employment is separate from any other, and no accumulation of benefits applies.

The Company undertakes to contract principal Singers for periods of greater than 12 months wherever repertoire and casting permits. This includes consideration of 2 year contracts, where circumstances permit, and where artists are available to commit to Opera Australia for the full period of proposed employment.

Where contracted for 12 months, a Principal Singer will be advised at the earliest opportunity, and no later than six months prior to conclusion of the current contract, if Opera Australia intends to contract the singer in the following year.

A contract of seasonal employment expires at the end of the agreed fixed term, without the need for either party to give notice, unless it is otherwise terminated during the fixed term in accordance with Clause 10.

9.5 Additional work

If any work is done by the employee for the Company after the time of the expiration of the notice as provided in clause 10, or after the termination of a contracted engagement, otherwise than in pursuance of a separate weekly or contracted engagement, such work will be paid for at casual rates.

9.6 Requirement to tour

It is a condition of employment that employees will travel on tour as required by the Company.

9.7 Casual employment

It is not the Company's preference to employ people on a casual basis for long periods of continuous employment. Where any employee has been employed full-time as a casual for a six months' period, consideration will be given to offering them a seasonal or permanent contract (as appropriate) unless the need for their employment is expected to cease within a reasonably short period.

Wherever reasonably contactable, previously employed casuals, whose performance has been satisfactory, will be advised of available up-coming casual work a month before the start of a season. There can, however, be no expectation of automatic re-engagement: employment will depend on work requirements and the best person for the job.

9.8 Change of classification

A Chorister's salary will not be reduced if they transfer to the Moffatt Oxenbould Young Artist Program. In all other cases of transfers from a classification to another with a lower salary, the resultant salary will be set by mutual agreement.

9.9 Place of employment

The Company will not induce any prospective/employee to misrepresent their place of residence, or engage an employee in the knowledge their place of residence has been misrepresented. Where an artist is engaged to perform in a city/region that is not their normal place of residence, the provisions of clause 12.3 will apply as though the employee's place of residence had been correctly stated.

9.10 Assignment

The Company may assign a production to another company, firm, person or persons (the assignee) for operatic and/or operetta performance and rehearsal in a theatre. Under no circumstances may an individual employee be assigned except by mutual consent and then such employee will be paid an individually negotiated fee within fourteen days.

If the Company assigns a production to an assignee then the rights of an employee under any contract of employment with the Company will continue to be enforceable by that employee against the Company as if such assignment had not taken place.

9.11 Advertising

Vacancies for positions covered under this Agreement will normally be advertised internally at the same time as they are advertised externally.

9.12 Participation in Marketing and Publicity

9.12.1 Marketing and publicity

- a) The Company may take photographs at any rehearsal for use in newspapers, magazines and general publicity to advertise the production, season or tour, provided the artist and any technical employee are given reasonable notice, preferably 24 hours notice. In practice, this may involve advising them of tentative dates that have subsequently to be confirmed or changed.
- b) The Company will decide the position, size and typeface of any artist's credit in programs and any other marketing or publicity material in which it includes his or her name.
- c) The thrust of any marketing campaign is at the discretion of the Company, and it will decide which photographs and names are used in any marketing and publicity material. The company will consult with the Artists on their general involvement in such campaigns to ensure an opportunity for feedback and comment. Any Artist may raise any concerns about his or her role in such campaigns with the Company's Marketing Department.
- d) The Artist will not be presented in any promotional material within the control of the Company which can be reasonably described as detrimental to his/her professional status or reputation. Should a dispute arise between the Company and the Artist in this regard the matter will be dealt with in accordance with the Dispute Resolution procedure.
- e) The Company will ensure, where there are 3 or fewer Artists in a publicity photo that is distributed to the media, or in a photo published in a nightly program, the Artists will be credited in such photos.

- f) The Company will notify the audience of any changes in the cast for named roles, and will place seat slips in the auditorium for that performance.

9.12.2 Involvement in marketing and publicity occasions

- a) Employees will agree to agree to all reasonable requests to attend publicity and marketing photography shoots, as well as media launches, interviews and promotional appearances for the purpose of marketing and promoting the production or season in which they are performing.
- b) The Company will take into account the artist's health, rehearsal and performance workload at any given time when making such requests. Such requests to be subject to the hours of work clause of the agreement and provided attendance at such events and travel time to and from the event if other than the place of employment shall be counted as time worked. Where attendance at a post-performance function is voluntary, no additional payment will be made for the time or travel involved.
- c) The Artist will be introduced and represented to any audience as having made a significant contribution to the production in which they currently appear.

9.13 Involvement in fund-raising activities

Employees will agree to consider all reasonable requests to attend post-show functions and other fundraising events as part of the Company's fundraising activity.

10 TERMINATION OF EMPLOYMENT

10.1 Permanent employees

The employment of permanent employees may be terminated by either the employee or the employer giving the notice in writing set out below:

Principal singers, choristers, music and language staff

- a) six months notice for an employee who has been employed continuously by the Company for a period longer than 24 months;
- b) eight weeks notice for an employee who has been employed continuously by the Company for a period of less than 24 months.

The period of notice will be increased by one week if the employee is over 45 years of age and has completed at least two years' continuous service with Opera Australia.

10.2 Payment in lieu of notice

In the event of shorter notice than the required period being given or received, the party giving the shorter notice will make to the other party a payment in lieu of the stated notice. Such payment will be equal to the proportionate part for which notice was not given or received. Shorter notice without such penalty may be given subject to agreement by both parties.

10.3 Seasonal employees

10.3.1 The employment of a seasonal employee ceases at the expiry of the term of their engagement.

10.3.2 Where an employee has been employed by the Company for a continuous period of 24 months, the engagement may only be terminated as provided in clauses 10.1 and 10.2 above.

10.3.3 Where the Company fails to produce or present the production for which the employee is definitely engaged or if the run of the production for which the employee is definitely engaged is less than four weeks, the Company will pay to the employee a sum of money equivalent to four weeks wages at the employee's negotiated rate of pay unless the engagement of the employee was originally for a lesser period than four weeks.

10.4 Return to place of engagement

At the conclusion of any company tour or travelling, the Company will normally arrange and pay for the return of the employee to their place of engagement. Alternatively, the Company will pay an allowance equal to the cost of the return fare.

Should an employee leave the Company's employ and fail to give the requisite notice as set out in clauses 10.1 and 10.3, an employee on tour will be responsible for his or her own return fare to his or her place of engagement, provided that if such leaving is attributable to a breach by the Company of this Agreement or of the employment contract, the return fare will be paid by the Company.

10.5 Late attendance – Casual Artists – Warnings System

To maintain and improve professional standards for the good of productions and other performers, casual artists who are late may be given a warning in writing. They can receive two written warnings before risking dismissal on the third occasion. This provision is not designed to penalise people who are late because of an emergency or unforeseen circumstances.

10.6 Dismissal

- 10.6.1 Nothing in this Agreement affects the right of the Company to dismiss without notice any employee for neglect of duty or misconduct. In the case of such dismissal, salary will be payable for the period up to but not after the time of dismissal.
- 10.6.2 This right applies whether or not the employee is on tour or away from the place of the employee's engagement at the time of dismissal. In the former circumstances, the Company will arrange for and/or pay the employee's return fare.

10.7 Time off during the notice period

Where the Company has given notice of termination to an employee, he or she will be allowed up to one day's time off without loss of pay for the purpose of seeking other employment. The time off will be taken at a time that is convenient to the employee after consultation with the Company.

10.8 Redundancy

Where a Redundancy occurs the provisions of Appendix C will apply.

This provision will not apply where the Company provides and the employee elects to use employer-provided transport.
- 12.1.2 Where, in the circumstances outlined in clause 12.2.1, the Company offers to provide air transport and an employee elects to provide his or her own transport, the Company will pay to him or her the amount the Company would have paid for the airfare, with a minimum amount as follows for a trip between Sydney and Melbourne:

- 12.1.7 When an employee chooses to travel by motor vehicle in the circumstances above, the owner/driver or passenger uses the vehicle at his or her own risk, and the Company or its agents have no liability, other than any under workers' compensation legislation, for any loss, damage or expense suffered by the employee as a result of the use of the motor vehicle.

The Company will use its best endeavours to provide standard single, self-catering accommodation with laundry facilities wherever possible within its cost constraints.

- 12.2.3 Where the period of travel is more than one week, an allowance of $549.43 per week (as at July 2012), or $109.88 per night (up to a maximum of the relevant weekly allowance), is paid, provided that such allowance is not payable where the Company provides suitable accommodation. Where this allowance is payable it should be paid in advance up to a maximum of one week.
- 12.2.4 In lieu of the above provision at clause 12.2.3, and where the company offers to provide suitable accommodation, an employee may elect an equivalent cash allowance.
- 12.2.5 The above accommodation allowance is not payable in respect of an artist who is engaged to work at a single location away from their place of residence for a specific period of twelve months or more.
- 12.2.6 Where the Company elects not to provide accommodation, and the employee elects to accept reimbursement of the expense of such accommodation, the following maximum limits apply:

- 12.2.8 Where there are special circumstances that the Company considers preclude it from being able to provide suitable accommodation Opera Australia and the employee may agree to shared accommodation without additional payment.
- 12.2.9 Reimbursement will be made weekly or at such longer intervals Opera Australia and employee agree and will be made upon presentation by the employee of a receipted account for the accommodation or such other arrangements as are agreed between the Company and the employee.
- 12.2.10 Where the Company is providing accommodation, but is unable to do so without requiring employees to share facilities, an allowance equal to 25% of the accommodation allowance in clauses 12.2.1 or 12.2.3 (as applicable) will be paid. This allowance will not apply where the employee is offered a choice of accommodation with shared and non-shared facilities, and elects to stay in the accommodation with shared facilities.
- 12.2.11 Vacating Company-provided accommodation:
If an employee is going to be away from Company-provided accommodation for more than 3 nights, they may be requested to pack up and vacate the accommodation for the period, on the basis that the Company provides a return airfare home (or equivalent destination), pays the cost (if any) of storage of the employee's belongings, and continues to pay him or her Meals and Incidental Allowances.
- 12.2.12 If, whilst on tour, an artist is flown by the Company to another city to perform in a free concert, the Company will continue to provide accommodation (or pay accommodation allowance) and pay meals and incidentals allowances for the period the artist is away from the tour.
- 12.2.13 If an employee elects to use Company-provided accommodation for part of the period for which they are on tour, and be paid the allowance for another part of that period, they will pay any additional costs incurred by the Company as a result of changing accommodation arrangements unless it can be shown that the additional cost was caused by circumstances outside their control.

12.3 Meal Allowance

Where the provisions of clause 12.2 apply, an employee will also be paid an allowance for meals as follows:

- 12.3.1 An allowance of $50.03 per night away for the first week, to a maximum of $250.09 per week away (as at July 2012).

Where the provisions of clause 12.2 apply, an employee will also be paid an incidentals allowance of $13.61 for each night away up to a maximum amount each week of $68.14 (as at July 2012).

12.5 Notice of travel to be given

- 12.5.1 When any travel in excess of one week in duration is required as much notice as is practicable and at least fourteen days notice will be given to employees. Such notices will include, where the Company is providing accommodation in accordance with this clause, the details of the accommodation to be provided.

- 12.5.2 The employee will indicate within fourteen days of the offer of accommodation whether they propose to accept the offer unless impractical to do so in the circumstances.
- 12.5.3 The Company will use its best endeavours to allocate accommodation for all employees at the same time, to avoid discrimination.

12.6 Insurance of effects

The Company will arrange insurance cover for employees' effects while they are touring or otherwise travelling on business authorised by the Company, on the basis that:

- a) The policy covers those items that are deemed to be in the normal course of what would be considered usual for the person to travel with, given the circumstances of the travel.
- b) The cover commences from the time the employee leaves their normal residence or place of business, and applies continuously until the employee returns to their normal residence or place of business.
- c) A deductible excess, payable by the employee, may apply in respect to some equipment.

12.7 End of season

Wherever venue bookings permit, the Company will endeavour to schedule an extra day, after the last performance of a tour, for bump out. Where this is not possible, and an employee is required to work after midnight on the final evening of a tour, the Company will provide accommodation, or pay the relevant accommodation allowance, and will pay meals and incidentals allowances for the following night.

12.8 Travel on the one day

- 12.8.1 Where an employee is required by the Company to travel to another city and back on the one day, an allowance will be paid as follows:

	$ per occasion from the beginning of the first pay period to commence:

21.69	22.50	23.17	23.86

- 12.8.2 Reimbursement of taxi fares as provided in paragraph 12.1.4 will apply. Where such taxi travel takes place before 9.00 am or after 5.00 pm, the employee will be reimbursed for taxi fares (up to the maximum on clause 12.2.4) between their residence and the airport rather than between their normal workplace and the airport.

12.9 Travelling time

- 12.9.2 For Choristers, Dancers and Opera Extras required to tour, an extra day will be allowed where a Monday falls within the travel period. An exception applies where a total of 3 travel days are to be provided, in which case Monday may be a travel day. In this case, no work will be scheduled before 5.30 pm on the Tuesday.
- 12.9.3 The greatest care will be taken in relation to the travelling arrangements for Principals. If a Principal believes their resources are being unduly taxed as a result of travel being scheduled over a period that includes a Monday, then the Company will consider this situation and, if the circumstances warrant, will provide an additional days' travel or a mutually acceptable alternative.
- 12.9.4 A Principal Singer, Chorister or member of the Music and Language Staff will not be required to work on a travelling day, nor to travel on the same day as they have taken part in a performance or rehearsal, except by mutual agreement.
- 12.9.5 If a member of the Music and Language Staff is required to travel on a Sunday, they will be granted another day off (on a Monday to Saturday) within either the next seven days or the seven days preceding the day of travel.

- 12.10.1 Where an employee is required to travel overseas on the Company's behalf, they will be paid an allowance, per night away from Australia, for meals and incidentals of 50% of the Australian Taxation Office's most recently published rate for the country concerned. Provided that where movement in the exchange rate alters the value of the Australian Dollar in the overseas country by more than 3% from the value at the date of publication of the ATO list, the Company will adjust the allowance accordingly.
- 12.10.2 Where an employee is required to travel overseas on the Company's behalf, they will be provided with a minimum 24-hour break from the expected time of arrival at the accommodation at the destination, before duty commences, for flights in excess of 6 hours; and a minimum of 12 hours (but 24 hours wherever possible) for flights of 6 hours or less.

14.3 Salary sacrifice superannuation

"Salary Sacrifice Superannuation" means an arrangement where an employee and the Company agree that part of future salary will be paid as superannuation contributions on his or her behalf. The Company offers the facility for making salary sacrifice superannuation contributions to employees on the basis that they will be required to provide a fresh letter of authorisation at the commencement each period of employment. Any such arrangement must be prospective – ie it must be an arrangement that is in place before the employee performs the services that give rise to the entitlement to such salary. Relevant Company policy and procedures apply.

14.4 Retirement planning

The Company will provide access to information on retirement planning services and resources, and assist with retirement planning, including phased retirement.

- 16.1.1 Permanent and seasonal employees accrue annual leave for each fortnight of continuous service on the basis of 0.1538 weeks/fortnight (equivalent to 4 weeks per year).
- 16.1.2 For the purpose of this clause, service is deemed to be continuous notwithstanding:
 - a) any interruption or termination of the employment by the Company if such interruption or termination has been made merely with the intention of avoiding obligation hereunder in respect of leave of absence; or
 - b) any absence from work on account of sickness or accident up to, but not exceeding, in aggregate fourteen days;
 - c) any absence on leave without pay approved by the Company, provided that Annual Leave does not accrue during the period of such leave without pay.

When an employee proceeds on annual leave, his or her entitlement calculated in accordance with this clause will be debited by the number of hours he or she would have worked on his or her ordinary roster during the period of leave.

16.2 Taking Annual Leave

- 16.2.1 Accrued annual leave may be taken at any time when mutually agreed between the employee and the company.
- 16.2.2 The Company may direct an employee to take part or all of their annual leave. Such period of annual leave must begin no later than three months after he or she has accrued a full year's entitlement , unless otherwise agreed to by the Alliance.
- 16.2.3 Unless otherwise mutually arranged between the employee and the Company, an employee will be given at least six months notice of the date of the commencement of their leave.
- 16.2.4 Where any public holiday falls within such period of leave, then an additional day in lieu will be added to the period of leave.
- 16.2.5 Recognising that some artists will not be able to take their annual leave at the same time as the rest of the Company, the following will apply with respect to such artists:
 - a) By mutual agreement annual leave may be given and taken in two separate blocks of two weeks provided that artists have the right to take their annual leave in one block of four weeks if so desired;
 - b) The Company will endeavour to accommodate artists' requests about the timing of their annual leave; and
 - c) It is acknowledged that casting changes may result from discussions about the timing of annual leave.
- 16.2.6 An employee, once sent on leave will not be recalled for duty without his or her consent, nor be required to undertake any preparatory work for the future season. If they should be so recalled, all leave taken will be forfeited to the employee.
- 16.2.7 If the Company finds it necessary to cancel or alter the date of annual leave for any employee, after the time for taking it has been notified to an employee, and he or she can show that through such cancellation or alteration he or she has actually lost payments reasonably made by him or her and in respect of which he or she has retained no benefit, the Company will reimburse him or her for such loss.
- 16.2.8 An additional day will be added to a Performer's Annual Leave:

- a) for each Sunday worked the year in which the Annual Leave accrued, provided that this does not apply to Sunday travel or to the Sundays rolled up under paragraph 33.10.1 (for which a day off in lieu is provided);
 - b) for each New Year's Eve evening worked by a Chorister.
- 16.2.9 If an employee is ill or injured whilst on annual leave, and provides evidence to satisfy the Company of such illness or injury, they will be entitled to substitute sick leave for annual leave for the period of sickness, provided that the time of taking any re-credited annual leave will be mutually agreed between the employee and the Company.
- 16.2.10 If on tour, an employee will not commence annual leave until he or she has returned to his or her place of engagement unless by mutual consent.

16.3 Payment for Annual Leave Taken

- 16.3.1 An employee will be paid for the period of their leave at their normal rate of pay.
- 16.3.2 An employee may elect, prior to beginning their annual leave, to be paid for their period of annual leave in advance.

16.4 Payment in lieu of Annual Leave

- 16.4.1 When an employee leaves their employment , or is dismissed by the Company, they will be paid any outstanding accrued annual leave.
- 16.4.2 An employee may elect to 'cash out' part of their accrued annual leave provided:
 - a) they have taken at least 2 weeks' annual leave in the preceding 12 months; and
 - b) they retain at least one year's annual leave accrual as set out in 16.1.1.

16.5 Annual Leave in Advance

- 16.5.1 The Company may allow annual leave to an employee in advance – ie before they have accrued the amount of annual leave.
- 16.5.2 Where this occurs, further annual leave does not commence to accrue until the expiration of the period needed to accrue the period of annual leave taken in advance.
- 16.5.3 Where an employee has gone on annual leave in advance, and then leaves or is dismissed before completing the necessary accrual period, they will reimburse the Company the monetary equivalent of the proportion of annual leave taken which has not fully accrued at the date of termination. Alternatively, the Company may deduct from whatever remuneration is payable upon the termination of employment, the amount of wage paid on account of the annual leave taken in excess of the amount accrued at the date of termination. The amount reimbursed or deducted will not include any sums paid for any public holidays as provided in paragraph 16.2.4.

17 PERSONAL LEAVE

17.1 Personal leave

- 17.1.1 Paid personal leave is available to permanent or seasonal employees in the event:
 - a) they are unable to perform their duties on account of personal illness or injury (sick leave); or
 - b) they are required to provide care or support to an immediate family or household member with a personal illness or injury or experiencing an unexpected emergency (carer's leave).

See also provisions for Compassionate Leave.

17.1.2 Immediate family includes:

- a) a spouse of the employee (including former spouse, de facto spouse, former de facto spouse and a person of the same or opposite sex with whom the employee has been living in an established domestic relationship); and
- b) a child or an adult child (including an adopted, step or ex-nuptial child), parent, grandparent or sibling of the employee or the employee's spouse.

17.1.3 Personal leave accrues and is available for full-time weekly employees at the rate of 15 days per year. Stage performers have access to paid sick leave as set out under clause 17.2.1.

17.1.4 Personal leave is available to a part-time permanent or seasonal employee on a pro rata basis ie. as a proportion of the ordinary hours worked by full-time employees in that classification or department.

17.1.5 Personal leave is available to an employee engaged on a seasonal contract for less than 52 weeks on a pro rata basis, ie. as a proportion of the year worked by full time employees in that classification.

17.1.6 Any unused personal leave at the end of a year of employment accumulates for employees in general, by 15 days less personal leave taken, and, subject to the other provisions of this clause, may be used in subsequent years. For stage performers, sick leave accumulates as per clause 17.2.1.

17.1.7 For Choristers, calls taken as personal leave will not count towards the annual call cap because they do not represent time worked. Personal leave will be administered in the following manner:

- a) for periods up to and including 3 days: as per calls missed;
- b) for periods over 3 days: 6.6 hours per day.

17.2 Sick leave

17.2.1 A permanent or seasonal stage performer is entitled to sick leave on the following basis:

- a) for the first year of employment - at the rate of 24 half days per year (provided that an employee who has a greater requirement for sick leave may, in exceptional circumstances, at the request of the employee to the Company, be entitled to sick leave up to 42 half days).
- b) for each year thereafter - at the rate of 42 half days per year.
- c) any unused sick leave is cumulative for a period of 5 years.

The above entitlement to sick leave exceeds the underlying rate of accrual of 15 days per year. 31.4 Previous experience

In determining "equivalency" in relation to previous experience for the purpose of the classification structure for weekly paid Choristers, the following points apply:

- a) Opera: One year's full time professional operatic experience is calculated as being 40 weeks of full time operatic work or substantially equivalent. Generally experience in ten operas would constitute one year's full time experience. If one opera is performed in two seasons this counts as two operas.

- b) Musical theatre: 40 weeks of musical theatre work is equivalent to one year's full time professional operatic experience. Less than 40 weeks is calculated on a pro rata basis, for example, 20 weeks of musical theatre work would be counted as half a year.
- c) Professional Oratorios/ Recitals: One engagement equals one week of full time work; four engagements are equivalent to one opera.

The above are general guidelines. In practice artists often have a combination of the various types of previous professional engagements and each case is assessed by applying these principles to the particular individual circumstances.

31.5 Chorus incremental progression

- 31.5.1 Incremental progression from Level 1 to Level 11 will take place following a successful review of a Chorister's work, undertaken in accordance with clause 31.6, at which they demonstrate the necessary capability to perform the duties required under the higher classification.
- 31.5.2 For each progression the first such review will take place not later than 9 months after the Chorister was first appointed to his or her current Level (if in Levels 1 to 6), or 21 months after they were first appointed to their current Level (if in Levels 7 to 10).
- 31.5.3 A Chorister may at any time request a review at an earlier date than that in clause 31.5.2.
- 31.5.4 Following a successful review a Chorister will progress to the next Level on the anniversary of his or her engagement by the Company or on the anniversary of the Chorister's previous incremental progression, whichever is the later. Unless there has been written feedback to the contrary it may be assumed that salary progression will be approved.
- 31.5.5 The timing of a Chorister's progression from Level 1 to Level 2 will take into account their total professional operatic experience, both before and after engagement with the Opera Australia Chorus.
- 31.5.6 Periods of Leave Without Pay of eight weeks or more that are not used for professional performance do not count towards Chorus experience under this clause.
- 31.5.7 If a Chorister is unsuccessful in demonstrating at such a review his or her capability to progress to the next Level, a further review will be undertaken when the Chorister requests it, but not less than 3 months after the previous one.

31.6 Chorus review procedure

- 31.6.1 Each Chorister will undertake chorus reviews:
 - a) while in Levels 1 to 10, to establish his or her readiness to progress to the next Level, in accordance with the procedure set out in sub-clause 31.5; such reviews will be undertaken annually for Choristers on Levels 1 to 6, and biennially for those on Levels 7 to 10;
 - b) after reaching Level 11, at two-yearly intervals, as part of an ongoing monitoring of their vocal health.
- 31.6.2 Such a review will include an assessment of the Chorister's skill and repertoire knowledge development over the period since his or her previous review and a Chorister's general approach to their work in the chorus, based on the requirements of the Chorus definitions in clause 31.2.
- 31.6.3 Such a review will include a sung component. Excerpts will be selected from repertoire currently in performance. In the case of an opera with a significant chorus participation the excerpt will be one Act only. A song or aria may be presented additionally.

- 31.6.4 Following the review, the Chorister concerned will be advised of any major concerns which exist about their capacity to meet the standards required. They will be offered training, guidance and assistance with addressing the problems identified, and will have the opportunity of a further review three months after the date of the previous review, or at a later time as may be mutually agreed between the Company and the Chorister concerned.
- 31.6.5 Should the Chorister so desire, they may nominate an appropriate person to support them at their subsequent review.

31.7 Casual Choristers

- 31.7.1 Casual Choristers will be classified in accordance with the following structure:
- a) Casual Chorister level 1: 0 - 3 years professional experience
 - b) Casual Chorister level 2: 4 - 6 years professional experience
 - c) Casual Chorister level 3: 7 - 9 years professional experience
 - d) Casual Chorister level 4: 10 and subsequent years professional experience.
- 31.7.2 Progression from one level to the next is based on skill development and years of experience as a professional singer provided that the employee's engagements over the period concerned include participation in at least one Opera Australia (or Victoria State Opera) production per year or equivalent in other areas of the entertainment industry.
- 31.7.2 Equivalency: The following guidelines apply in assessing whether previous experience is "equivalent" to one Opera Australia production:
- a) Work with other Opera companies (eg, State opera companies, overseas opera companies and contemporary opera companies) will be directly equivalent, ie one opera with another Opera company equals one Opera Australia production.
 - b) Musical Theatre: one musical in a year will be equivalent to one opera.
 - c) Solo work in professional oratorios and professional recitals: 4 engagements will be equivalent to one opera.

31.8 Engagement of Choristers

- 31.8.1 Engagement as a member of the Chorus will be determined by the Chorus Master and will normally follow an audition unless, in the opinion of the Chorus Master, sufficient information/knowledge is available to warrant an audition unnecessary.
- 31.8.2 Engagement as a member of the Chorus on an ongoing weekly basis will, subject to paragraph 31.8.3, commence with a probationary period of six months, the successful completion of which will be followed by confirmation of an employee's ongoing employment as a Chorister. During the probationary period the provisions of paragraph 10.1.1 do not apply.
- 31.8.3 Alternatively to paragraph 31.8.2, engagement as a member of the Chorus on an ongoing weekly basis may be preceded by engagement for a fixed-term of 2 years, subject to the following:
- a) An employee engaged under such a contract will be advised, no later than six months before the completion of the contract, of any major concerns which exist about his or her capacity to meet the standard required for progression to the next Chorus Level as an ongoing weekly employee.
 - b) An options clause will be included in such fixed-term contracts to the effect that either side may seek a conversion of the contract into ongoing weekly employment at any time.
 - c) Starting on a 2-year contract is not envisaged with regard to a Chorister who has already done significant work with the Company.
 - d) The provisions of sub-clauses 31.1 to 31.6 apply to a Chorister engaged under this paragraph.
- 31.8.4 Choristers engaged as a particular voice type may audition for vacancies in another section without first resigning. Fair consideration will be given to the Chorister under such circumstances.

- 32.5.2 The learning and rehearsal components of the fees have been identified separately from each other. An expected number of learning hours has been identified for the learning component, and an expected number of rehearsal calls has been identified for the rehearsal component. Both fees are based on the hourly rate of pay for the Level 11 for each year of the Agreement.
- 32.5.3 Rehearsal calls are calculated at 3 hours per call. Calls additional to the number allowed for above are paid at hourly rates for a minimum of 3 hours. Choristers are to keep a record of all rehearsals to which they are called by name and to claim such additional calls. This sub-clause does not apply to dress rehearsals and sitzproben in circumstances in which a Chorister covering a role is attending as an observer, or in which a Chorister engaged to cover or perform a role is performing in a call to which he or she is also called as a Chorister, or where a Chorister's chorus workload has been reduced to accommodate his or her role or cover responsibilities. [For example: In order to undertake a specific role or cover, a Chorister may be excused chorus responsibilities in the same, or another opera to which he or she would ordinarily be allocated as part of the annual chorus allocation. Such an arrangement may be necessary to accommodate scheduling, or where the role in question could not be undertaken in addition to Chorus responsibilities.]
- 32.5.4 Where a Chorister undertakes a Chorus cover or a role in an opera which is scheduled in consecutive seasons, the Chorus member receives only one Learning Fee and one Rehearsal Fee for both seasons, in addition to the Per Performance Cover Fee per role and per season. Additional calls resulting from such an arrangement may be claimed as set out in paragraph 32.5.3.
- 32.5.5 Any Bit Part in an opera in which the Chorister has not been allocated to perform as part of the Chorus is paid as a Support role for both the learning and rehearsal components and the per-performance fees. Any subsequent Bit Parts played by the same Chorister in the same opera are paid as such, provided that for multiple roles in the same opera, the call counts will be cumulative.
- 32.5.6 Timing of Payments – Covers

When a Chorister is covering, fees for the combination of the Rehearsal, Learning and per performance Cover Fees will be paid in two equal instalments:

- a) The first instalment will be included in the first pay following the commencement of rehearsals.
- b) The second and final instalment will be included in the first pay following the conclusion of performances of the Opera performed.

Where applicable, the per performance Performance Fee will be paid in the first pay period after the Chorister has performed the role.

32.5.7 Timing of Payments – Roles

When a Chorister has been cast in a role, she or he will receive in addition to their ordinary chorus payment the Rehearsal and Learning Fees in the first pay following the commencement of rehearsals. The "per performance" Performance Fees will be paid in the first pay periods after the Chorister has performed the role.

32.5.8 Classification Review

Where a Chorister covers a role and it emerges during rehearsal that work is exceeding requirements of the assigned role, the artist can request that the role be re-classified. The artist can also seek a review of that decision and have an Alliance or JCC representative present.

32.5.9 Senior Choristers

- a) Senior Choristers will be given the opportunity to participate (with due credit) in (non-singing) activities that make use of their specialised knowledge and experience.
- b) Each Senior Chorister will be able to request a pair of A Reserve tickets, plus drink vouchers, for a Company performance, each year.
- c) Choristers who have been on level 11 for at least 12 months may apply for up to 2 additional Chorus Leave Days per year, as set out in paragraph 20.3.7.

33 HOURS OF WORK AND SCHEDULING

33.1 General principles

- 33.1.1 At all times the greatest regard will be shown for the well being of each employee. The resources of employees will not be unduly taxed in relation to the number of performances and/or rehearsals required of the employee in each week. The work and scheduling patterns of the years immediately prior to the annualisation of salaries will continue.
- 33.1.2 No rehearsal will be held on a day in which two performances are given.
- 33.1.3 A break of eleven hours will be allowed between the cessation of work on one day and the commencement of work on the succeeding day.
- 33.1.4 For the purposes of this Part, any work on Sundays will be included in the calculations of time worked in the preceding week Monday to Saturday.
- 33.1.5 Should the Company require the employee to travel to a locality away from the employee's usual place of employment reasonable time will be allowed for such travel.
- 33.1.6 All artists shall be entitled to a minimum of 30 minutes travel time between two adjacent calls in different venues. This time will be in addition to a one hour meal break and will be unpaid time.

- 33.1.7 The maximum number of calls per year will be capped at 440 including wardrobe calls. For the purposes of calculating the annual call count, all leave days, travel days and public holidays will count as two calls. Wardrobe calls will count as half a call.
- 33.1.8 Where a Chorister works more than 420 calls in any one year, the Company will ensure that the same chorister will work less than 420 calls the following year.
- 33.1.9 For the monitoring of work, the Company will provide the Chorus with information on the expected range and average of scheduled calls per part per year.
- 33.1.10 Long service leave will be counted as 9.16 calls per week (calculated by dividing the annual call cap of 440 by 48 working weeks per year).
- 33.1.11 Calls over the cap will be paid a Chorus extra Payment as set out in paragraph 33.5.3.
- 33.1.12 Generally, two rehearsal sessions may be held on a day in which no performance is given by the employee; one rehearsal session may be held on a day in which a performance is given by the employee. However, three call days will be kept to a minimum, with no more than one three call day scheduled per calendar month.
- 33.1.13 No more than 11 calls in any week will be scheduled for any Chorister.
- 33.1.14 The number of 11 call weeks will be limited to 11 per year.
- 33.1.15 There will be a fortnightly cap of 21 calls in a two week period, i.e. two consecutive 11-call weeks will not be scheduled for any Chorister. In addition, the Company will use its best endeavours to ensure that there is a maximum of 9 calls in one of the weeks on either side of any week in which 11 calls are actually worked. If that were not achieved in any particular case, the Chorister(s) concerned will be paid a Chorus Extra Payment.
- 33.1.16 No Chorister will be required to work 7 days without a day off.
- 33.1.17 If more than 9 calls in costume a week occur, a Chorus Extra Payment will be paid for each call in excess of nine.
- 33.1.18 There will be no more than six "9 costume call" weeks scheduled in any one year (ie. for the chorus as a whole).
- 33.1.19 A 12 hour break and an 11 a.m. start will be implemented where practicable when such an arrangement only affects the chorus. Where this is implemented, the time limit provisions of clause 33.3.3 do not apply. This issue is to be addressed by the Scheduling Committee when appropriate.
- 33.1.20 In the case of productions requiring complex or extensive choreography, a half an hour warm-up will be provided for the Choristers involved before the first rehearsal or performance of each day on which the show is rehearsed or performed. This will be paid at the rate prescribed in clause 33.5.9 for each performance. For rehearsals, it will incur extra payment only if it extends the duration of the rehearsal beyond the period stipulated in clauses 33.2.4 and 33.3.2.

33.2 Performances

- 33.2.1 If an employee is directed by the Company to be in attendance at the employee's place of employment for longer than thirty minutes prior to the commencement of a performance the time of the employee's attendance will be paid at the rate set out in paragraph 33.5.9. Provided that such payment is not applicable for vocal warm ups as specified in paragraph 33.2.8.
- 33.2.2 Thirty minutes will be allowed to an employee for preparatory duties, such as dressing and make-up, incidental to a performance, and fifteen minutes will be allowed after such performance for undressing and removing make-up. Such time will be counted as working time.

- 33.2.3 An extra quarter of an hour will be allowed for removal of make-up that extends beyond the normal face/neck and hands. This will be counted as time worked but will only incur extra payment if it extends the performance or rehearsal time beyond four hours. Such payment, if incurred, will be at the rate set out in paragraph 33.5.9.
- 33.2.4 The minimum time to be credited to an employee for each performance or dress rehearsal session is four hours (inclusive of making-up/dressing and removing make-up, etc.) from the commencement to the conclusion of the performance or dress rehearsal.
- 33.2.5 The ordinary hours during which a performance may be held are from 11.00 a.m. (on-stage commencement of performance) to 10.45 p.m. (on-stage conclusion of the performance time) on any of the six days Monday to Saturday both days inclusive.
- 33.2.6 A performance will not commence later than 8.15 p.m. on any day.
- 33.2.7 Employees will receive a break of not less than two hours between the conclusion of one performance or rehearsal and the commencement of another performance on the same day. Such breaks will be clear of any time required for travel, dressing/make-up, undressing/removing make-up. If an employee receives a break of less than two hours, the Company will provide him or her with a meal at the theatre of a nature approved by a representative of the Alliance. Alternatively, the Company may pay the allowance provided in sub-clause 11.12.
- 33.2.8 In recognition of the need to maintain a cohesive vocal ensemble, Choristers may be required to attend vocal warm-up calls prior to a performance in which an individual is rostered. There will not be more than two such calls in any one week. The total warm up time will not exceed 30 minutes in any week. The timing will be determined by the Chorus Master or their representative. All vocal warm-up calls will be considered as part of a normal performance call. Warm-ups for opening nights and recordings or broadcasts are included in this arrangement.
- 33.2.9 If a call for a Sunday performance exceeds 5 hours, the Chorus Extra Payment set out in clause 33.5.3 will be paid in addition to the provisions of clause 33.10.
- 33.2.10 When dress rehearsals and performances on Monday to Saturday exceed 5 hours, an additional call will be added to the annual call count for each rehearsal or performance.
- 33.2.11 If a Chorister performs in opera as a principal singer of leading or featured roles then the maximum number of performances that Chorister may give as a principal singer in that week is four. However, should that Chorister, in addition to performance(s) as a principal, perform as a member of the Chorus in other opera performances, then the maximum number of performances in that week is five.
- 33.2.12 If a Chorister performs in operetta as a principal singer of leading or featured roles then the maximum number of performances that Chorister may give as a principal singer in that week is five. However, should that Chorister, in addition to performance(s) as a principal, perform as a member of the Chorus in other performances, then the maximum number of performances in that week is six.

33.3 Rehearsals

- 33.3.1 Clauses 33.2.1 to 33.2.4 apply to dress rehearsals as well as performances.
- 33.3.2 The minimum time to be credited to an employee for each rehearsal session, excluding solo coaching calls and stage calls, is three hours.
- 33.3.3 Where more than one music or production rehearsal call or call for other work is made on one day, an interval of one hour will be given, commencing between the hours of 12.00 noon and 2.30 p.m. as a lunch break, except in the case of dress rehearsals or where a publicity or wardrobe call is scheduled immediately prior to or following a rehearsal as outlined in sub-clause 33.8, Wardrobe and Publicity Calls.

- 33.3.4 Where an afternoon music or production rehearsal call is followed by an evening music or production rehearsal call, an interval of one hour will be given between them.
- 33.3.5 Where consecutive dress rehearsals are scheduled on one day, an interval of 1 ¼ hours will be given between them. This time is inclusive of undressing and dressing time.
- 33.3.6 Employees shall be given a tea or rest break of at least fifteen minutes, in paid time, at the end of each 1 ½ hours' work at a rehearsal. In the case of production and dress rehearsals, such breaks will be exclusive of any time required for changing costume or make-up. The following exceptions apply:
 - a) Dress Rehearsals: the break shall be scheduled by agreement between the employees and stage management.
 - b) Production Rehearsals: the break may begin between 1 ½ and 1 ¾ hours into the rehearsal, by mutual consent, for the purpose of running large scenes or an Act. Such consent will not be unreasonable withheld, on condition that the director's intentions for the rehearsal are made explicit as early as possible in the rehearsal.
 - c) Sitzproben: the break may begin between 1 ½ and 1 ¾ hours.
- 33.3.7 Clause 33.2.10 applies to dress rehearsals as well as performances.
- 33.3.8 When dress rehearsal calls on Monday to Saturday exceed 4 1/4 hours, but do not exceed 5 hours, a half a call will be added to the annual call count for each rehearsal.
- 33.3.9 Should a wardrobe call be scheduled within an ordinary rehearsal call, no additional time will be credited for the wardrobe section of the call provided that the proper breaks are given and the call does not exceed three hours. It is understood that Choristers will only be called out of ordinary rehearsals for costume calls when this is unavoidable.
- 33.3.10 When two music calls are scheduled for the same day, individual Choristers will not be called for more than 2.5 hours to each call. In scheduling such calls, the Chorus Master shall make all reasonable efforts to avoid prolonged lunch breaks for individual Choristers.
- 33.3.11 A reasonable number of Chorus Music Calls will be scheduled for the learning of chorus repertoire.
- 33.3.12 On a day when an employee takes part in a matinee performance, he or she will not be required to work in a rehearsal prior to that performance.
- 33.3.13 In addition to the conditions set out in clause 33.2.5, the following provisions apply with regard to the scheduling of rehearsals:
 - a) Rehearsal sessions on Tuesday to Saturday inclusive will not commence before 10.30 a.m. (on stage commencement of dress rehearsals);
 - b) Rehearsals on Monday will commence after 5.30 p.m., except for Casual Choristers, in which case rehearsals may be held from 10.30 a.m. (on stage commencement of dress rehearsals), and provided that, subject to paragraph 33.10.3, a Chorister undertaking or covering a principal role will be available for ensemble or production rehearsal prior to 5.30 pm on a Monday.
 - c) Music Calls will conclude by 6.00 p.m., except for Casual Choristers, in which case they may be scheduled to finish up to 10.00 p.m.
 - d) Production rehearsals will terminate no later than 11.00 p.m.
 - e) Sitzproben will terminate no later than 10.00 p.m., or by agreement with the Choristers where the production is longer than three and one half hours in performance. Such agreement will not be unreasonably withheld.
 - f) Rehearsals will terminate not later than two hours prior to a performance, excluding any time required for travel, dressing/make-up, undressing/ removing make-up, warm-ups, and other performance-related activities.

- 33.3.14 In the case of production rehearsals, dress rehearsals, or sitzproben, there will not be more than four such evening rehearsals in any one week.

33.4 Meetings

- 33.4.1 Attendance at meetings for both chorus representatives and the full chorus will be counted as follows for both annual and weekly call counts:

- a) meetings of up to 1.5 hours will be counted as half a call;
- b) meetings over 1.5 hours and up to 3 hours will be counted as a call;
- c) meetings of 1 hour or less attached to a call will not be counted in the annual cap as payments for meetings of this length were included in the roll up as overtime;
- d) meetings of any length scheduled by the Company, solely for representatives and delegates to the Joint Consultative Committee, the Alliance, and the Occupational Health and Safety Committee, whether or not attached to a call, will be counted as half a call for meetings up to 1.5 hours and as one call for meetings of over 1.5 hours and up to 3 hours.

- 33.4.2 Calls will be counted towards the annual call cap for the purpose of preparation by chorus representatives in the following way:

- a) 4 calls will be counted towards the annual call cap for the Joint Consultative Committee, the Alliance, and the Occupational Health and Safety Committee, and 2 calls for the Scheduling and the Conductor and Director Assessment Committees;
- b) a maximum of 6 calls per performance year will be counted per individual;
- c) calls will be allocated on a pro rata basis for part years.

This arrangement may be reviewed if the nature of these committees changes.

33.5 Overtime

- 33.5.1 The annual call cap for full time Choristers is 440 including wardrobe calls.

- 33.5.2 For the purposes of calculating the annual call count, all leave days, travel days and public holidays will count as two calls. Wardrobe calls will count as half a call.

- 33.5.3 Calls over the cap will attract a Chorus Extra Payment at the amount set out below:

	From start of first pay period to begin on or after:
1/01/2011	1/01/2012	1/01/2013	1/01/2014
161.36	168.98	174.05	179.27

These figures are calculated by dividing the appropriate Level 11 yearly salary by 440 calls.

- 33.5.4 A Chorus Extra Payment for the following will be made at the end of the performance year:

- a) calls over 440 in the year;
- b) chorus leave days not scheduled.

- 33.5.5 A Chorus Extra Payment for the following occurrences will be made in the pay period following the week in which they occur:

The consultative process will provide for participation by employees engaged for Schools Tours in decision making on matters affecting the working environment.

Part 13: Appendices

Appendix A

JOB SHARE ARRANGEMENTS

Job share is one of a number of options for flexible work. In the context of this agreement it applies to Chorus.

The arrangements for job sharing permanent positions, by two or more employees each working on a part-time basis, are as follows:

1 General principles

- 1.1 A permanent or seasonal position may be filled on a job share basis subject to the individual arrangements being agreed between the Company and each of the persons involved. Examples of job sharing include: two members of the same voice type from the full-time chorus; or one member of the full-time chorus and one or more casual choristers.
- 1.2 Job share arrangements should be cost-neutral to Opera Australia. Each application will be considered on its merits, subject to operational considerations and the maintenance of artistic standards.
- 1.3 It is envisaged that job sharing will be organised so that each employee involved works part of each fortnight (except when the company is touring), rather than in alternating blocks of time at a full-time work and of leave without pay.
- 1.4 Job share arrangements will generally only be agreed by the Company for one year at a time, preferably starting from the beginning of the performance year at the start of the Sydney Summer Season rehearsals. In special circumstances, seasonal job sharing arrangements may be agreed.
- 1.5 The renewal of a job share arrangement, at the conclusion of an agreed period, will be subject to a review and explicit agreement by the Company and each of the individuals involved.
- 1.6 Ongoing job share arrangements for an individual may be agreed on medical grounds.

2 Pro rata entitlements

- 2.1 Each person job sharing will be employed for an agreed percentage of a full-time position – e.g. 50%.
- 2.2 The provisions of this Agreement will then apply on the basis of this percentage, pro rata to full-time entitlements, including:
 - a) Rates of pay for ordinary hours;
 - b) Call caps;
 - c) Annual leave;
 - d) Personal leave;
 - e) Long service leave;
 - f) Chorus leave days;
 - g) Special Disability Allowance (where applicable);
 - h) "N/As".
- 2.3 When a job share percentage is 80% or more, Professional Development Allowance (clause 11.10) will be available in full. Where the percentage is less than 80% the entitlement will be pro rata as for the allowances listed in clause 2.2.

- 2.4 The full amount of any sick leave previously accrued as a full-time employee will be available for use by an employee who is job sharing, if all of the current year's entitlement has been used. The provisions of clause 17.1.7 apply except that deductions under 17.1.7(ii) will be calculated on a pro rata basis.

3 Full rate entitlements

- 3.1 Payments will be made at the full rate for:

- a) Sunday work;
- b) Calls over the cap;
- c) More than 9 calls in costume in a week;
- d) Participation in simulcasts and broadcasts;
- e) Role and cover payments.

- 3.2 Only one job sharing person will be toured with the Company in any one season. The person touring will receive travel days and tour allowances at the full rate.

Appendix B

RECORDING AND BROADCAST ARRANGEMENTS

1 General

- 1.1 Opera Australia may record or otherwise create, or contribute to, electronic products (both audio and video) of its performances, rehearsals or specific recording sessions. Such recordings or other products may be used:
- a) for archival and reference purposes;
 - b) to promote and/or publicise the Company, its productions, its artists and/or the art form;
 - c) in a documentary or television, radio or internet special program;
 - d) for commercial purposes.
- 1.2 The Company will own copyright in all recordings. The arrangements in relation to artists and staff involved are set out below. Any variation to these arrangements may only be made with the written agreement of the artists concerned and/or their representatives.

2 Overall Objectives

- 2.1 The overall aim of these arrangements is to maximise the profiles and the incomes of both the artists involved and the Company, by facilitating the creation of the highest sustainable number and quality of recordings and broadcasts of the Company's activities, and effectively exploiting them in as wide a market as possible. To this end, the objectives of these arrangements are:
- a) Simplicity and certainty in the arrangements to be followed in each situation.
 - b) Rewarding artists directly involved, professionally via the increased exposure to, and profile arising from, their artistry.
 - c) Rewarding artists directly involved, financially via a royalty share in the income received from exploitation of the recording.
 - d) Limiting up-front payments so as to minimise the cashflow and other financial disincentives to making recordings.
 - e) Rewarding ancillary artists and staff via a total buy-out fee.

3. Archive and Reference Use

- 3.1 The Company may make audio-visual archival recordings of performances without payment of any additional fee or royalty.
- 3.2 Archive recordings may be used:
- a) as a historical record for the Company, for use by its staff, students or historians;
 - b) as an archival reference for rights-holders, principle cast and creative team;
 - c) as a performance reference for each performer where more than one cast performs the same production;
 - d) as a tool to on-sell or hire the production;
 - e) for planning and research;
 - f) as a guide to recreate the production when a show is restaged or revived;
 - g) by a director to remount future productions.
- 3.3 Any other use of an archive recording requires the prior written agreement of those involved. Such consent will not be unreasonably withheld.

4. Publicity and Promotional Use

- 4.1 The Company may record interviews, rehearsals and backstage activities for publicity and promotional purposes. Such material, as well as up to 5 minutes of any recorded footage of a performance, may be used to advertise or promote a production, season, the Company, the opera artform and/or the artists involved, without payment of any additional fee or royalty.
- 4.2 Where material is recorded specifically for publicity and/or promotional purposes, any use for other purposes requires the prior written agreement of those involved. Such consent will not be unreasonably withheld.
- 4.3 Should the Company receive any fee for the use of such material, it is deemed to have been used for commercial purposes, and the provisions set out in sub-clause 6 apply.

5 Documentary Use

- 5.1 Recorded material (whether of a performance or rehearsals, or of interviews or backstage activities) may be included in a documentary or television, radio or internet "special" or magazine program (including a series such as Operatunity Oz).
- 5.2 Each artist and staff member involved will have the right to decline to be involved in any additional activity such as interviews or staged-for-camera activities.
- 5.3 The inclusion of more than 5 minutes of footage of any rehearsal or performance in a documentary or special program requires the prior written agreement of those involved. Such consent will not be unreasonably withheld.
- 5.4 No extra payment is made unless the exploitation of the documentary or special program generates revenue for the Company and more than 5 minutes of newly-recorded performance or rehearsal footage of any production is used. In such cases the 'net income' received will form part of the royalty pool as set out in clause 6.

6 Commercial Use

- 6.1 Recordings used for commercial purposes may be exploited in all media (existing or developed in the future) and geographical areas, including (but not limited to):
- | | |
|---|---|
| a) audio-visual (television) broadcasts | • audio (radio) broadcasts |
| b) CD | • DVD/video |
| c) clip licensing | • compilations |
| d) documentaries | • TV/radio/internet magazine programs |
| e) relay to remote screens | • webcasts/podcasts/narrowcasts/streaming |
- 6.2 Artists will be consulted about, and retain right of approval over, the non-contextual use of their recorded image (visual or aural) – for example, clip licensing where its use is not related to the production recorded, the artists involved, the Company, the art-form or the promotion of any of these. Such approval will be in writing.
- 6.3 A total of one half of the net income received by the Company from exploitation of a recording in all media in all geographical areas constitutes the royalty pool, which is distributed in the form of royalties to the artists and staff directly involved in the recording or broadcast.

Distribution of Royalties

- 6.4 One third of the royalty pool (ie 16 2/3% of the total net income received by the Company from commercial use of each recording) is distributed to each of the following three groups:
- Group 1: The creative team; conductor and any assistant conductor; guest artists (engaged on a per performance fee basis or on a weekly salary above the highest Principal Singer provided in Part VI); music and language staff; chorus master and assistant chorus master.
- Group 2: The chorus (both permanent and casual) and principal artists on a weekly salary up to highest Principal Singer level provided in Part VI.
- Group 3: The orchestra (both permanent and casual).
- 6.5 If, for a particular recording, there is no artist in any one of the three groups, the royalty pool share for commercial use of the recording for each of the remaining groups increases from 16 2/3% to 25% of the net income received by Opera Australia for that recording.
- 6.6 Group 1 members receive a share of the royalty pool allocated to that group for each particular recording. The share of each artist is proportional to the ratio the artist's individual royalty base bears to the sum of all Group 1 royalty bases. Provided that the minimum share for a Group 1 artist is equal to that of a Group 2 artist for the same recording.
- The royalty base on which the royalties for a Group 1 artists is calculated, is:
- a) for a member of a creative team paid on a lump sum fee basis = 20% of the current fee, or equivalent current fee;
 - b) for a guest artist or conductor paid on a 'per performance' fee basis = 1 performance fee;
 - c) for anyone paid on a weekly salary basis = 1 week's salary.
- Notes:*
- 1. Creative team members do not receive a royalty share of the net income received by the Company from radio or other audio-only broadcasts or other exploitations, and the shares of the other members of Group 1 are adjusted accordingly.
 - 2. Composers and Librettists of operas are not covered by these Arrangements, and any payments to them will be negotiated separately.
- 6.7 Group 2 members receive equal shares of the royalty pool allocated to that group for each particular recording.
- 6.8 Group 3 members receive equal shares of the royalty pool allocated to that group for each particular recording, provided that the Leader of the Orchestra for the particular recording receives double the share of the other Players.
- ### Payment of Advances
- 6.9 Twelve months following the first exploitation of a recording for a DVD/Video, CD or telecast, an advance on royalties will be paid, consisting of:
- a) For each member of Group 1: the greater of $345 or 30% of the artist's individual royalty base,
 - b) For each member of Group 2: $345,
 - c) For each member of Group 3: $345 for musicians generally, and $690 for the concertmaster or other leader of the Orchestra;
- in each case, less any royalties already paid.
- The dollar amount of these advances applies to recordings made in calendar year 2012. They will be indexed annually on the basis of the previous calendar year's Consumer Price Index for Sydney. The twelve month deferral of advances is limited to 4 productions per year.

- 6.10 No advance on royalties is payable on a free-to-air radio broadcast in Australia of a recording, but the fee (if any) received by Opera Australia for such broadcast will be designated as forming part of the net income received by the Company, and hence the royalty pool which is distributed to the artists and staff directly involved in the recording or broadcast.
- 6.11 No advance on royalties is payable on exploitation of operas by Australian composers.
- 6.12 If a compilation product is released consisting of extracts from one or more recordings, royalties will be paid pro rata according to the relative length of the extract(s) from each recording.

Payment of Royalties

- 6.13 Royalties are paid to the recipients once in each six month period, distributing the income received by the Company in the preceding January-June or July-December period (as applicable).
- 6.14 Where the amount payable to a participant in any six months' period is less than $20.00, such amount will be carried forward to the next period.
- 6.15 Each payment will be accompanied by a statement to the artist detailing the payment being made.

Other Considerations

- 6.16 Should the Company agree to any payment or special conditions (additional to those set out in this document) to any artist on the grounds that his or her involvement will significantly impact on the commercial viability of any recording, broadcast and subsequent exploitation, such extra payment will not reduce the royalty pool being distributed as royalties to the other participants.
- 6.17 Any such payments in the form of royalty advances would be in lieu of any advance payable (6.9), and would be payable on first exploitation of the title (other than as excepted for a free-to-air radio broadcast in Australia (6.10) and for an Australian opera (6.11)).
- 6.18 The "net income received by the Company", from which royalty shares are paid, is the net amount received after recoupment of the direct costs of making, packaging and selling the recording, broadcast or other exploitation. Such direct costs include any buy-out payments made to ancillary participants in the recording (see clauses 6.17, 6.18 and 6.20).
- 6.19 In calculating the net income referred to above, a fair net commercial value to the Company of any agreed sponsorship arrangements attributable to exploitation of the recording or broadcast will be taken into consideration. Where such arrangements are entered into they will be disclosed, on a confidential basis, to the authorised representative(s) of the artists involved.
- 6.20 Each participant in the distribution of royalties from new DVD or CD titles receives one copy of the first retail release DVD or CD, in addition to his or her royalty share. (Not relevant to creative teams for CDs.) Arrangements will be made for participants to be able to buy additional copies of the first release DVD or CD at the wholesale price.

Payment for ancillary participants

- 6.21 Those artists and staff who participate in the making of an audio-visual recording or broadcast in an ancillary way are paid a total buy-out of all rights of $106.00. The dollar amount of this buy out applies to recordings made in calendar year 2012. It will be indexed annually on the basis of the previous calendar year's Consumer Price Index for Sydney. Specifically those involved are, when actually working on the performance or rehearsal being recorded or broadcast:
 - a) Lighting staff;

- b) Mechanists;
 - c) Performing Props staff;
 - d) Performing Wardrobe staff (including dressers);
 - e) Performing Wigs & Make Up staff;
 - f) Audio technicians;
 - g) Juveniles (chorus, opera extras and principals);
 - h) Surtitles operators (when the Company's surtitles are used in the exploitation of the recording).
- 6.22 Dancers and Opera Extras who participate in the making of an audio-visual recording or broadcast are paid a total buy-out of all rights of $150.00 for dancers and $130.00 for extras. The dollar amount of this buy out applies to recordings made in calendar year 2012. It will be indexed annually on the basis of the previous calendar year's Consumer Price Index for Sydney.
- 6.23 Those artists and staff who participate in the making of an audio-only recording or broadcast in an ancillary way receive a total buy-out as above. Specifically those involved are, when actually working on the performance or rehearsal being recorded or broadcast:
- a) Audio technicians;
 - b) Juveniles (chorus and principals).
- 6.24 Buy out payments are made only once for each recording made, and are not paid to staff who work only on rehearsals for the recording (such as balances, camera rehearsals, etc). Buy-out payments are payable on first exploitation of the title.
- 6.25 Those members of stage management who participate in the making of a recording or broadcast are paid a total buy-out of all rights of 30% of their week's salary, provided that a payment applies once for each member of stage management who is actually working when the recording or broadcast is made, even if the recording is made over several sessions. Payment will be made on the first exploitation of the title.
- 6.26 Where extra hours are worked by stage management because of a recording or broadcast, these will be recognised and recompensed under the provisions of Part 12 of this Agreement.
- 6.27 No payment is applicable for operas by Australian composers or for free-to-air radio broadcasts in Australia.

7 Relay to large screens away from the performance venue

A performance may be relayed to large screens away from the performance venue without additional payment if the additional audience is not a paying one. If it were proposed that the relay be used for any other purpose, the appropriate provisions of the rest of this Agreement would apply.

8 Credits

- 8.1 All artists and staff participating in the making of a recording or broadcast receive appropriate credits on any commercial product created.
- 8.2 Unless mutually agreed otherwise, such credits are on the same basis as for a performance cast sheet.

9 Notice

- 9.1 The Company will give all artists and staff involved as much advance notice as practical of any recording that is to be made. In the case of recordings for commercial or documentary use, such notice will be at least 14 days in advance, other than in exceptional circumstances. The notices to Principal Artists involved will also be emailed to the relevant Agents.

- 9.2. The notice will include the date and time of the recording, together with as much additional relevant information (including the intended purpose(s) of the recording) as is known at that time.

10 Audit

The Company will maintain separate and accurate records solely relating to the exploitation of recordings and other products. These records will contain all information reasonably required to verify net income received by the Company from exploitation of a recording - gross receipts, commissions, marketing expenses and distribution costs. Upon reasonable notice, an artist's authorised representative will no more than twice each year be entitled to a reasonable inspection and examination of appropriate Company records. Should a discrepancy of 10% or more be discovered, the cost of such examination will be borne by the Company, otherwise the cost will be borne by the artist.

11 Review of Arrangements

It is agreed to review the effectiveness of these arrangements in the life of this Agreement, as and when required.
